

Ebbie

Ibbaanika,

Thank you for trusting us with Noah. Your courage to look beyond your personal heartache and put Noah's best interest above yourself is heroic beyond measure. We feel honored to be used by God. Remember the promises of God.

You are like Hannah who gave her son Samuel to be raised at the temple. You are like Moses

Mother protecting Noah and choosing to put him in a basket of safety. We will protect him with our lives. He is in God's Hands. We are committed to walk this out together. He is the fruit of your womb.

May God strengthen you as you go through this hard time. Thank you for listening and obeying the Lord. Thank you for this precious gift our son - Megan and Stuart.
